FROM THE PASTORS' DESK

This weekend, Pope Francis' Jubilee Year of Mercy begins to end as "holy doors" are closed in Rome's basilicas and in diocesan cathedrals and churches throughout the world. Though today opens with a certain sadness, as our year of specially and specifically praising God's mercy ends, we are encouraged to let our year-long sharing of God's mercy in compassionate love toward others continue throughout our lives. Today's scriptures teach that same positive victory.

As our lives are formed by the corporal and spiritual works of mercy, we should spend a little time reflecting on these specific moments that God gives us each day to do something special for ourselves and for others.

Corporal works of Mercy

- To feed the hungry;
- To give drink to the thirsty;
- To clothe the naked;
- To shelter the homeless;
- To visit the sick;
- To bury the dead.

Spiritual works of Mercy

- To instruct the ignorant;
- To counsel the doubtful;
- To admonish sinners;
- To bear wrongs patiently;
- To forgive offenses willingly;
- To comfort the afflicted;
- To pray for the living and the dead.

GOD'S WORD

Today's readings touch again on the future, focusing on the end of time. People have always been fascinated and frightened by dramatic signs and warnings of what is to come. And the signs always seem to be occurring right now. In fact, the warnings are communicated in highly symbolic language. They don't really tell us when Christ will appear for us. But they keep us on our toes, so that we may live in readiness for whenever and however he comes.

Malachi 3:19-20a Hope, despite a description of end times

2Thessalonians 3:7-12 Model for dysfunctional communities.

2 Luke 21:5-19 Jesus counsels calm.

SCHOOL

Principal: Nicole Kuehne - 414-476-0751
NKuehne@archmil.org

I would like to thank all the teachers, parents, and students for a great week of conferences. We enjoyed highlighting the achievements and successes of our students. It reminds us of how important the home and school connection is in the education of a child.

Please remember that the next family mass is at St. Augustine Parish on November 20th at 10:00 a.m. The school is grateful that each parish is having a family mass this school year. We want it to be a tradition that continues for many years.

Please save your Box Tops! The school still collects Box Tops. If you have any saved up or are willing to start clipping them, we certainly appreciate it. You can either drop them off or mail them to our school office (1435 S. 92nd Street, West Allis, WI 53214). Those Box Tops really do add up each year!
